ORDER CONTINUING TRIAL

This matter is before the court on defendant's motion to continue trial (#60). For good cause shown, I find that the motion should be granted. Trial of this matter will be continued to the next available trial setting.

IT IS ORDERED that defendant's Motion to Continue Trial (#60) is granted, as follows:

1. The trial of this case is continued to Tuesday, July 26, 2005 before Judge Laurie Smith Camp and a jury as to all defendants.

2. The ends of justice will be served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between June 21, 2005 and July 26, 2005, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reasons stated in the motion for continuance. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

3. Defendant, Vicente Padilla-Navarro shall file a speedy trial waiver in accordance with NECrimR 12.1 as soon as is practicable.

DATED June 2, 2005.

BY THE COURT:
